GOODE AND HARRINGTON

The Grand Old Man and the Admiral Present Crosses of Honor to Confederate Veterans.

AND JACKSON DAY

Observed With More Unanimity Than Ever - Lessons From Lives of Great Commanders.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 18 .- Despite the fact that this is the birthday of General Robert E. Lee, and a State holl-day, Judge William N. Portlock conthe Norfolk County Court as usual. A few minutes later the judge hurriedly announced that he had overlooked the fact that the day was the natal anniversary of the great chieftain and he quickly adjourned court.

The day was generally observed in Norfolk, the veterans of Pickett-Buchanan Camp, C. V., heing presented with crosses of honor, as were the vet-erans of Portsmouth. The orator of the occasion was the Hon, John Goode, president of the late Constitutional Con-vention. The day was generally observed in

CROSSES OF HONOR.

Admiral Harrington Presents Them to Members of Camp.

Them to Members of Camp.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PORTSMOUTH, VAL, Jan. 19.—Never before, perhaps, in the history of this city was the observance of the birthday of General Robert E. Lee more generally observed than to-day.

Everywhere were evidences of the holiday. The banks and offices of city and county officials were closed, and Confederate flags were seen in many places. One of the most notable features of the culminating event of the day, the presentation of crosses of honor to the veterans of Stonewall Camp, Confederate Veterans, was the presence of high officers of the United States navy.

Rear-Admiral Purnell F., Harrington, commandant of this naval station, and two of his officers, Capitain Thomas, commanding the receiving ship Frankille, and Medical Examiner Persons, in charge of the Naval Hospital in this city, accepted the invitation of Mrs. Neely, president of Portsmouth Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, which is in charge of the Presentition of medical of honor to the vetwhich is in charge of the present of medals of honor to the vet crans.

These officers sat in a box draped with These officers sat in a box drapes with a Confederate colors, opposite a similarly decorated box, filled with pretty Portsmouth girls, who also wore the red and white of the lost cause.

Between these boxes in the orchestra space was stationed the band of the receiving ship Franklin.

BADGES CONFERRED.

Daughters Decorate Veterans of

Daughters Decorate Veterans of the Staunton Camp.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, V.A., Jan. 19.—Lee-Jackson birthday was fittingly observed here to day by the old solders and all their admirers. The Daughters of the Confederacy presented the wearers of the gray with crosses of honor. Stonewall Jackson Camp met at 10 o'clock in their torse they proceeded. led by the Stonewall Band, to the hall of the Ontederacy, J. E. B. Ekulit Chapter. Completed reserved before the appointed hour the house was folied.

member of the Staunton bar, and the son of a Confederate veteran of fame, was the chief orator of the day, and delivered the presentation address to the veterans, with a brief eulogy to Lee and Jackson. He paid a glowing tribute to the surviving soldiers of the lost caus and to the Daughters of the Confederacy for their efforts in behalf of the Confederacy for their efforts in behalf of the Confederacy for their estimates.

for their efforts in behalf of the Confederate soliders.

Captain James Bumgardner, Jr., an old
Confederate, responded to Mr. Timberlake on behalf of the veterans. Captain Bumgardner highly praised the Daughters for the honor they conferred on the old soldiers. The speakers of the day were introduced by Captain T. D. Ranson, another veteran, in whom the spirit of the Confederacy is as undying as the widow's cruse of olf.
There were many Confederate soldiers of fame present.

IN LEXINGTON.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, VA., Jan. 19.—The ninety-fifth annual celebration of the Graham-Lee Literary Society, of Avashingten and Lee University, was held this eventing in the Lee Memorial Chapel, in honor of the birthday of General Ropert E. Lee. On account of the severity of the weather, the audience was not large.

The orators, with their subjects, were:
D. A. Bradham, South Carolina—"The Dreamer in Politics;" P. J. Phillips, Maryjand—"The Magnetic Needle In Life," T.question debated was: "Resolved, That the President's action in recognizing the independence of Panama was unwarranta, by international law and expedience.
The affirmative debaters were J. K. B eedin, South Carolina; C. A. Engle West Virginia, The negative: J. W. Flannagan, Virginia; S. B. Boyet, Texas.

General Lee's birthday was observed in Lexington to-day by the susjension of academic duties at Washington and Lee University and the Virginia Military Institute, suspension of the public schools and the closing of the banks.

At Suffolk.

At Suffolk.

At Suffolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLK, VA., Jan. 12.—All places of mainess closed this afternoon and there was a big cenderation in fonor of the memories of Lee and Jackson. Concluding a parade, participated in by the Tom Smitl Camp of Confederate Veterans, under whose auspices the actemonies were feed, the local militia, miliormed Pythians and other organizations, there were public addresses in the auditorium of the City Hall Theatie.

Among those on the stage were Colorad Tom Smith, intercommander of the Grand Cemp of Virginia.

The stage was draped in Confederate

This smith, into commander of the Comp of Virginia.

The stage was draped in Confederate colors. There were large pictures of Lee, jackson and other military leaders. Circuit Judge Robert R. Prentis, the orator of the day, was introduced by Colonel

Dyspepsia

Don't think you can cure your dyspeps! in any other way than by strengthenin and toning your stomach.

That is weak and incapable of performin its functions, probably because you hav imposed upon it in one way or another ove. You should take

Household Words

IN THE MUSICAL WORLD ARE

Steinway.

Knabe.

Kimball.

Standard.

Hardman.

Haines.

These Planes represent all that is best in the Plane trade. They are known all over the United States and their merits are admitted. Time is the real test at the head of the list. Payments are arranged to suit the purchaser; so there is no reason to put your purchase off another day. We have the finest stock ever displayed in this city. Some slightly used Planos

Victor Talking Machines

are a world of entertainment in your home. No dull hours with one of these and a few well-chosen records. We have 10,000 of them. Prices from $15 to $60.

WALTER D. MOSES & CO.

103 East Broad Street.

R. S. Boykin. Judge Prentis made a mas-terful address on the life and character of Lee. He was frequently applauded.

In Danville.

(Specia) to The Times-Dispatch.)

DhNVILLE, VA., Jan. 19.—Lee-Jackson day was observed here this afternoon by the Caboll-Graves Camp in a most niting manner. Escorted by the Danville Light Infantry and the cadets of the Denville Military Institute, more than a funged waterans marched from the camp head marters to the Academy of Music, which was filled with an enthusiasite addience.

audience. A splendid address was made by Rav. Dr. W. H. Atwill, of hila city, and old war songs were sung by Mrs. John Nuyllie and Professor Davis, of the Randolph Macon Institute. Resolutions commendatory to Generals Longstreet and Gordon were adopted.

At Winchester.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., Jan. 19.—The birinday of General Robert E. Lee was celebrated here to-night at the City Hall by General Turner Ashby Camp and was well attended.

well attended.

Rev. Charles D. Bulla, of the Methodist Epricopal Clarch, South, delivered the oration, and addresses were nade by Lemmander R. T. Barton and City Solicitor R. Gray Williams.

The Daughters of the Confederacy presented the veteramy with Southern crosses of honor, and later tendered the old solicions a banquet in the camp hall. Ausic was furnished by a large orchestra of local musiciars.

At Strasburg.

At Strasburg.

(Special to The Tirnes-Dispatch.)

STRASBURG, VA., Jan. 19.—Stover Camp. Confederate Veterans, fittingly colcerated the anniversary of the birth of testeral R. E. Lee this alternoon.

Judge John W. Maddox, representative in Congress from Georgia, was the orator of the occasion and delivered one of the ablest specches ever delivered here on a similar occasion, delighting a large audience.

Birthday of Gen. Lee Fittingly Observed at His Old Home.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LIEVINGTON, VA., Jan. 19.—The nine.

At Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 19.—The ban, quot to-night in honor of General Lee's bitteday, given by A. P. Hill Camp of Confederato Veterans was an elaborate affair. The banquet was held in Library Hall, and a number of distinguished speakers responded to toats.

The observance of the day was general and the parade of the veterans, the reliciburg Greyn and the Knights of Fythias was witnessed by a large crowd

In Fredericksburg.

In Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA. Jan. 19.—
To-day, General Lee's birthday, was observed to some extent as a holday here. The public schools closed and a meeting was need at the querthouse to-night, which was largely attended by Confederate soldlers. Some of Voterans and the public generally. The occasion was the presentation of crosses of honor by the Daughters of the Confederacy to excepted at soldlers of this city who are childed to that honor.

Laptain S Quinn presided, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. J. F. Reschro and Judge John T. Gooleick.

At Leesburg.

At Leesburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEESBURG. VA. Jan. 19.—Clinton

Hatcher Camp. C. V. Colonel E. V.

White commander, held a reunion here to-day in honor of Lees birthday. A banquet was tendered the voterans and Sons of Confoderate Veterans by the lo cal chapter of the Daughters of the Con rederacy in the Town Hall and soveral number covers were laid for the occa sion, which was attended by guests from all sections of the county.

Appropriate specches and addresses were made by members of the camp and several papers were read.

At Winston-Salem.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Jan, 19.—The birtiday of General R. E. Lee was fitting-ty celebrated in the city schools to-day. To-night Norfleet Camp, U. C. V. held appropriate exercises at the courthouse war songs were rendered by Daughters of the Confederacy, and Capitain R. Is, Girni, made a splendid Maress on the life and character of General Lee.

a great gathering at Hibernian Hall, and exercises, under the nuspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans were present, and the occasion was especially memorable to about sixty veterans, who received from the hands of the Daughters the Southern cross of honor. Addresses were made by Rev. John Johnson and Gustavus M. Pinckney. Banks and public buildings were closed to-day, and some nusiness houses observed the day as a

At Pulaski.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PULASKI, VA., Jan, 19.—The camp of Confederate veterans met in the Courthouse here to-day to commemorate General R. E. Lee's birthday. A large crowd was present and a number of speeches were made.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., Jan. 19.—There was no observance of Lee's birthday to-day,
other than the closing of banks.

REV. HARRY B. LEE, JR., TO BE ORDAINED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Jan. 19.—
At Christ Episcopal Church, this city, on Friday morning next the Rev. Harry B. Lee, Jr., will be ordained priest by the Rt. Rev. R. A. Gibson. The Rev. Nelson N Dame, of Winchester, will preach the ordination sermon. The candidate will be presented by his father, the Rev. H. B. Lee, rector of Christ Church.

Mr. Lee is at present officialing as minis ve. in charge of the Episcopal churches at Fairfax and Vienna. After his ordination to the priesthood, he will become rector of these churches. CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Jan. 19.

A HERO DEAD.

Earned a Living for His Family

Lying on His Bac1-. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHATHAM, VA., Jan. 19.-Edward W. CHATHAM, VA., Jan. 19.—Edward W., Palmer died at his home, near World's, Saturday, after a lingering illness, prought on by receiving a wound, in the loins in a difficulty near this place with Craghead Cabell.

Since that time Palmer had been unable to walk, his lower limbs being paralyzed from the wounds, but he earned a living for his family by making baskots, lying flat on his back.

His wife, three daughters and one son survive him.

JAMESTOWN DIRECTORS CHOOSE THEIR OFFICERS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 19.—The directors of the Jamestown Exposition tonight elected the following officers:
President, Ganeral Flianugh Lee; first vice-president, Alvah H. Martin, Norfolk county; second vice-president, S.
Gordon Cumming, Hampton; third vicepresident, W. E. Barrows, Newport News;
fourth vice-president, Joseph Bryan,
Richmond; nfth vice-president, C. S. Sherwood, Portsmouth; sixth vice-president,
T. S. Garnett, Norfolk; director-general,
D. Lowenborg, Norfolk; treasurer, N.
Beaman, Norfolk; secretary, G. T. Shepperd, Norfolk; auditor, Barton Myers, Norfolk; general counsel, T. J. Wool,
Portsmouth, and O. D. Batchelder, Newport News.

Flouring Mill.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

COVINGTON, VA., Jan. 19.—Recently
E. M. Nettleton, J. T. Fudge, J. 15. Rollins, C. W. Rush, Dr. W. B. Payne, W.
A. Rhehart, T. M. Gathright and J. H.
Rinehart formed a company, known as the Alleghany Milling Company, of Covington, Va. and will build a three-story flouring mill here with capacity of one hundred barrels a day, or the control of the contr

Roanoke Wants It.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch)
ROANOKE, VA., Jan. 18.—The Board of Trade to-day decided to make a fight for Roanoke as the piace of meeting of the Republican State Convention. R. H.
Angel, a member of the committee, who left to-night for Richmond, will extend the invitation.

It strengthens and tones the stomach and permanently cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Accept no substitute.

In Charleston,

In Charl

BODY FOUND FROZEN IN ICE

Eggleston Cheatham, Aged Negro, Believed to Have Been Murdered.

LETTER FROM JOHN ADAMS

Thinks War With France Would Not be Such a Bad Thing.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 19.—The negro, was this afternoon found in the ico at the new city reservoir at Willcox Dam. The discovery was made by Robert Alley, who was skating on the nke. Keeper Bullivant was notified and the body was out out of the ice, by which it was surrounded. Cheatham was of going into the woods near the reser of going into the woods near the reservoir for wood. A hole in the man's head was found, and tends to the belief that the man was murdered and his body thrown into the water. An inquest will be held to-morrow. The reservoir in which the body was found is not being beed at this time by the city.

LETTIER FROM JOHN ADAMS.
In looking over old records to-day,

In looking over old records to-day City Auditor G. B. Gill found the fol

"Gentlemen,—I thank you for the address. I thank you for your most zeal-cus approbation of the measures cal-culated for the preservation of peace and the restoration of harmony with the French republic. War is not to be re-sorted to, but in pursuit of justice and in cases of necessity. A war with France, if just and necessary, might wean us from fond and blind affections, which no nation ought ever to feel towards others, as our experience in more than one in-stance abundantly testifies. I thank you for your full declaration that with one that "The Runaways" will be presented at the Potersburg Academy Thursday night of this week. The advance sale of scats has been very large.

THREE NEGROES.

Special Grand Jury and Speedy Trial for Their Crime. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUPPOLIC, VA., Jan. 19.—Late last Saturday night Mrs. J. W. Thomas, who aves near Courtland, Southampton country, was attacked in her home by three nogroes. Wille, Everett and Dell Evans The first two are brothers; the last named their sousies.

Evens.

In Southampton to-day Justice Moore conducted the preliminary trial and held all three prisoners for court. A special ground jury for their mideiment will be convened, and the men, if indicted, will have a speedy trial.

THE NELSON SHOOTING.

Lewis Killed Dolan After He Had Followed Him Home. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LOVINGSTON, VA., Jan. 19,-Many

RHEUMATISM
CURED IN EVERY CASE.
Muscular, Gouly, Iclaud, Inflammatory. PRESCRIPTION 100,384 A HARMLESS TREATMENT based on Science and hence. Cure " hoursbies" "Got's Matches at drugsts, 700. Buttle. Someter molles free. WK. E. BULLLE, UNIVERSITY P. CR. BUW YORK.

Buildings Inspected.

ody of Eggleston Cheatham, an aged woodchopper and was in the habit

lowing letter signed personally by President John Adams in answer to an address presented to him by the city of Petersburg:
"To the Citizens of the Town of Petersburg: "Gentlemen,-I thank you for the ad-for your full declaration that with one will rally round the constituted authorities of your country. "JOHN ADAMS.

"JOHN ADAMS.

"Philadelphia, June 6, 1798."

POCAHONTAS COUNCIL.

Pocahonas Council, No. 8, Degree of Pocahonas, last night installed the following officers: Mrs. D. E. Adams, P. P.: Pocahontas, Miss Ruth Talbott; Winonah, Miss Mamie Leigh; Powhatan, J. W. Brown; K. of R., Mrs. C. O. Edwards; K. of W., I. F. Birdsong; scouts, Misses Lottle Eanes and Mamie Edwards; runders, Miss Florie Aldridge, and Miss Agnes Dahlene; councilors, Misses Farley Cumbla and Bettle Verlines; warriors, Mrs. L. B. Hargrave, Mrs. J. H. Harvill, Mrs. J. F. Dean and Miss Bernico Cumbla.

Mrs. J. H. Harvill, Mrs. J. F. Dean and Miss Bernico Cumbla. The committee appointed to make an inspection of the public buildings in Fetersburg has completed its work and made a report to the mayor. The Academy of Music, the Y. M. G. A. Ramsdell Block and Library-Hell were inspected, and all were considered safe. Slight alterations, however, are suggested.

Slight alterations, however, are suggested.

DINWIDDIE COURT.

With the passing of Dinwiddle County Court yesterday, Hon. George S. Bernard, at the request of the bar and citizens, paid the chilogy to the expiring court, complimenting it, as one of the honored institutions of the past. The judges in the order of their election were James Boisseau, Joseph S. Budd, R. H. Jones, R. C. Shell, B. J. Epes and J. Y. Harris, recently appointed to fill out the unexpired term.

William A. Bond, who recontly underwent an operation for appendicitis at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, is rapidly recovering.

THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.

William Curlee, a blacksmith, employed by the Camp Manufacturing Company, was in the city Saturday to be examined for life insurance. His measurements recorded by the examining physician were as follows: Height, 6 feet 4 1-3 inches; chest measure, 40 inches; weight, 276 pounds; no fat, all muscles,

Giagler Encampment of Odd-Fellows weight, 2e pounds, no tat, ar muscles.

Glazier Encampment of Odd-Fellows will pay an official visit to Nellson Encampment of Richmond to-morrow night.
William Smith, alias Turner Thorn, a negro arrosted in this city, turns out to be wanted at Greenville, N. C., whore he broke juli some time since. He is being held for the North Carolina authoritis.
Miss Mary Sue Whitmore, of Chatham, after a visit to the family of James Y. Branch, left to-day for Williamston, N. C., to visit her brother, Fred Whitmore.
Local theatre-goers are pleased to learn that "The Runaways" will be presented

The rist two are blowers, the requisition roughly the received to have gone to Mrs. Thomas' home and assalled her. When she screamed, they are said to have chubbed her seriously. The mater fled, but were captured before daybreak.

The brothers seek to exonerate themselves by laying the name upon Dell Evens.

SINCE THE WAR

$500,000 IN PRIZES of $5.00 each to be given to

School Children's Competitive Advertising Contest No. 4

AND BUUGHT A PACKAGE OF

This sketch was made by Parker Painter, aged 10 years, Kenwood School, Chicago. We give a cash prize of $5.00 for any drawing of this character which we accept and use. All school children can compete. Pull in-structions on inside of each backage of Egg-O-Sec, telling what to do to get the prize and how to make the drawings.

The pure flaked food, manufactured with every possible sanitary safeguard. Selected sanitary safeguard. wheat, filtered water, absolutely pure flavoring. Costs less than the ordinary kind, and when you get it you are sure of purity. Tasteful, digestive and healthful.

NOTE-THE PRICE OF EGG-O-SEE IS to CENTS for a full-size package, such as is usually sold for 15 cents. The largest food mill in the world, with the most approved laborsaving machinery, enables us to make the best flaked wheat food at this lower price. ASK YOUR GROCER FOR THE GREEN PACKAGE.

your grocer does not keep it, send us his name and 10c. and we will send you a package, prepaid. Address all communications to "EGG-O-SEE," Quincy, III. lisked concerning the shooting of William Dolan by Z. R. Lawis, hear Norwood, in Ne.son county. The facts are as follows: Mr. Lawis, who owns a farm on James River, about twelve miles from here, had n tenant, William Dolan. This man and Mr. Lewis Isld been drinking together at Dolan's house. After talking a while they began wrestling. Dolan threw Lewis, which made him angry, and he got up and started home, followed by Dolan. Lowir told him not to follow him, if he did he would shoot him, but Dolan followed him into the yard. Mr. Lowis went, into the house, Lot his gun, an oid-taishioned breechloader, and, meeting Dolan at his door, shot him dead. He then got on his horse and came have and gave himself up, but the next movining went back to Norwood to stand trial before a magistrate, after which he was brought he e and put in fail.

For awhite public sontiment was very bitter against him, but it has abnted, and there is no fear of violence. The day for his trial has not been set.

SUPERVISORS.

Salaries of Pittsylvania Officials Were Increased.

(Special to The Ames-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., Jan. 19.—The newly elected Board of Bupervisors organized for business Saturday. W. I. Wilson, of Dan River District, and J. F. Graves; of Plag River, are the only members of the board that were re-cleeted. The five others are new members but of that number one has before been a member. Mr. W. T. Wilson was elected chairman, receiving six of the bonor in a short and very appropriate speech, pledging a faithful discharge of the duties. Mr. Wilson accepted the bonor in a short and very appropriate speech, pledging a faithful discharge of the duties. Mr. Wilson mas re-cleeted by a large majority.

Ex-Treasurer G. H. Vadon's final settlement with the county was confirmed, and a resolution highly commending his incurated in the settlement with the settlement of the settl (Special to The ..mes-Dispatch.)

A SMOOTH ONE.

Used Telephone to Help Him Pass Worthless Check.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., Jau. 19.—W. T.
Stoptoe, a prominent business man, was called up over the telephone the other might, estembly by John Coles Clay, a well known real estate night, who asked Mr. Steptoe to cash a check for a friend of his who wanted to leave town at once. The supposed Clay said he would enderso the check.

Mr. Steptoe readily agreed, and a few minutes afterwards a fine-looking stranger catered his office and handed him a certified check on the Merchants National Euris of Richmond for $3. The cash was delivered. The check went to Richmond and the Richmond bank pronounced it a forgery, and Mr. Clay informed Mr. Stoptot that 14 hand known nothing whatever about the matter.

The handsome stranger has disapeared.

SILVER SERVICE.

Bar of Culpeper Makes Handsome Gift to Retiring Judge.

some Gift to Retiring Judge.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(CTLPEDER, VA., Jan. 19.—The adjournment without day of the old system of monthly County Courts for Culpeper took place to-day, and was made most interesting by proceedings of the bar in the court in honor of the retiring judge, W. L. Joffrios, to whom the bar presented a handsome silver service, suitably engraved. Mr. Charles Walto, Mr. John S. Darhour and Judge D. A. Grimsley made addresses in the presentation of the beautiful gift, and after the acceptance of it on the part of the judge, a series of resolutions, as offered by Mr. Adden Bell, and seconded by Mr. Edwin Grimsley, as expressive of the appreciation of the long service of the outgoing Judge, were unanimeusly adopted and ordered spread on the court records.

HONORS JUDGE SAUNDERS The Bar of Lynchburg Presents Him With a Gift.

Him With a Gift.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCIBURG, Va., Jan. 19.—The special term of the Circuit Court ordered by Judge B. W. Saunders some time ago began this morning. Only members of the bar were present. Air. N. C. Manson, Jr., on behalf of the Lynchburg lawyers presented to Judge Saunders a beautifulity bound edition of the Century Dictionary, Cyolopedia, and Allas, together with resolutions of a most complimentary character, signed by the donors. The resolutions realite the fact that under the new Constitution Judge Saunders is removed from this circuit. Several addresses were made, expressive of the feeling of the har and the high esteem in which Judge Saunders is hold here.

RAPPAHANNOCK BLOCKED WITH ICE

Gray Fox Caught in Stafford County by a Bird Dog.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Jan. 19. Last night was the coldest experienced here for years, the thermometer reachhere for years, the thermometer reaching zero. Ice had formed in some places twenty inches thick. The Rappahannock River is blocked with ice, and no steamer from Baitimore or Norfolk has been able to reach here for several weeks. One ofe the Weems Line steamers from Baitimore attempted to get here last Saurday, but was unable to come higher up the river than Naylor's on account of the heavy ice.

At a public sale of mules, horses and wagons, formerly the property of T. B. Yerby, Jr., in this city, high prices prevailed. The mules sold from $125 to $135 each; the horses brought over $100 catch, and the wagons also sold well.

Messrs. W. T. Peyton and William Sullivan, while hunting in Stafford, started a gray fox, and with one bird dog, after a good chase, caught the fox in Hollywood Marsh.

MECKLENBURG COURT.

Address by Representative of Tobacco Growers' Association. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
(Chlass CITY, VA., Jan. 19.—There was a small attendance at the last term of Mecklenburg County Court yesterday. It was an unusual day, cold even for the month.

was an unusual day, cold was held in the month.

A meeting of the bar was held in the courthouse. Judge Henry Wood was chosen chairman. A committee composed of Attorneys R. T. Thorp, Thomas D. Jeffress and E. C. Goode was appointed to prepare and report resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the bar at the termination of the relations which had existed with the County Judge, W. E. Homes, for eighteen years. The committee reported resolutions highly culoristic of the character, abilty and valuable services rendered by the rottring judge results.

of the character, ability and valuable services rendered by the retiring judge for a period of eighteen years.

In the attemoon Mr. S. C. Adams, of the Interstate Tobacco Growers Association of Virginia and North Carolina, spoke to a large number of farmers with the reference to his organization. Ho spoke to a large number of farmers with the read the plan of organization, showing its object and the results to be altained. He showed the necessity of securing reliable statistics of the amount of the cropthe satisfies of the amount of the county of Charlotte and is deeply interested in his work.

As a vectorial the county clerk informed.

work.

As an evidence of the financial status of the people the county clerk informed me that there were now four times as many deeds of trust released in his office many deeds of trust released in his oline as were recorded.

The transition from the old order of courts to conform to the new Constitu-tion seems to give general satisfaction among the people. A new light has dawned upon Virginia and with it is confidently expected greater security, con-tentment and advancement.

FIRE IN NEWPORT NEWS. The Alhambra Hotel Burned. Contents a Total Loss.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW PORT NEWS, VA. Jan. 19.—Fire totally destroyed the Aliambra Hotel her; to-dry. The fire started from an overheated furnace in the cellar of the structure, a three-story frame building, with a veneering of brick. The ground floor, occupied by Frank timith's saloon, was soon a mass of farms, and within a few minutes the whole structure was ubjaze.

Errost Buyder, the son of Mrs. Daniel M Snyder, owner of the building, occupied the upstairs apertments. He was in bed at the time the fire was discovered and the rapidity with which the fire spicad is shown by the fact that he was unable to save any of his parsonal effects.

spical is shown by of his personal effects.

The fire was under control this afternoon, but not until the line was a mass of rules.

The building originally cost $7,000. Insurance $4,000. No insurance was carried on the contents of the building. Smith's stock was valued at several thousand dollars.

WARD LUMBER.
VINGINIA NINTH AND ARCH STS.

Good Stationery

adds tone to any business house. Get the

BAPTIST & PICOT can furnish you at low> est price, quality considered.

Baptist & Picot, 105-107 Governor St.

When a CAST IRON PIECE of your machine breaks you have a choice of three things:

1st. Get a new plece.
2d Parch it with plates and bolts.
8d. BRAZE IT WITH

"FERROFIX" The first requires from 1 to 10 days.
The second is only temporary, as patch works loose.
The third is immediate, cheap and pormanent. Which do you prefer?

Cameron-Tennant Machine Works,

FHONE 169. WALKE & BALLAUFF, 17th and Cary Sts., Richmond; Va.

BLANKS! B. & S. Dime Liver Pills

h had a second